EVEN THOUGH THERE ARE FEW GOOD OPTIONS WHEN A PARENT NEEDS MORE CARE THAN A CHILD CAN PROVIDE, IT IS STILL

A difficult decision

TO TURN THE CAREGIVING OVER TO SOMEONE ELSE

By GINA SOLTIS KENDELL

For the first day in nearly eight weeks, Ruby Van Alstine did not visit her mother, Grace Haist, last Friday at Grandvue Medical Care Facility.

Grace's health was failing when a bug turned into pneumonia, so Ruby came every day to be with her. She seems to have made a turn for the better now and Ruby spent the day helping her own daughter with a garage sale instead.

In July, Grace will be 98. She has been a resident at Grandvue for about 10 years. Prior to that she lived with her other daughter Eleanor Segraves, Ruby's sister, for a few years.

"She kept falling and having a lot of broken bones. Then when she became wheel-chair ridden, it was too difficult to take care of her," Ruby said.

"It became more than we could handle because we're not real young either," said Ruby who is 69. Her sister is 76.

Faced with a decision many children encounter when parents age, the sisters knew their mother would have to move into a facility where she would receive around-the-clock care.

It was a difficult decision.

"I don't think anyone easily puts them in (a nursing home)," said Grandvue executive director Penny Drury.

She said the staff tries to stress with the families that it's a continuum of care.

"Just because they're not doing day-to-day caregiving, they are still a necessary part of the care team," Drury said.

Ruby Van Alstine and her mother, Grace Haist.

Families provide history on the resident and give feedback on the care because they know the person better than nursing home staff does.

Drury also pointed to the health risks faced by the 70-year-old child caring for a 90-year-old parent, or the 80-year-old caring for a spouse the same age. With the average age at Grandvue 85, some people have outlived their support systems.

With nursing home care, Drury said the family is able to get a rest and come back with a better energy level, have a pleasant time with the person and actually have time to visit.

"I think it's kind of a slow evolution," Drury said of famlies realizing this is the right choice.

"The staff takes you in and you sit down and they tell you you've done the right thing," Ruby said. "They work with you to help you with that.

"But, I must say, you never do get over that guilty feeling because that's your mother. She took care of you. No matter how hard you try, you never get over that guilty feeling of having someone else care for her instead of you."

Grace's husband died 33 years ago. For more than 20 years she lived on her own, in her own home, driving a car and always on the go.

She didn't want to move to a nursing home, even though her daughters knew she could no longer do for herself, and they couldn't keep up either.

"I think she always thought that she would (go

Butterfly magic

With coaxing and amazement, first graders watch in wonderment as their butterfly friends stretch their wings and ready for flight into the freedom of the spring air. Raised from caterpillars in a home-made terrarium, the butterflies were set free by students last week at the Boyne Avenue Greenhouse. While Jackie Wollenberg holds the terrarium, Kayla Haddix, far left, Kayla Cosler, Cory Deisler and Tracy Miller -- still in costume from their music class -- coach the butterflies to freedom.

Friends of the Jordan making their home in EJ

■ They will be setting up shop in the old Trading Post building

Friends of the Jordan River Watershed will take over the old Trading Post building in East Jordan as their new headquarters, pending the finalization of a lease with the City of East Jordan this week to rent a site near Sportsman Park for $1 per year.

Currently the organization is headquartered in Bellaire.

"It will be a more appropriate setting for Friends of the Jordan," executive director John Hummer said.

Terel Development, who built condominiums on the site next to the historical building on M-66, donated the trading post to FOJ as well as $4,000 toward moving it near the park at 101 Union St. off Bridge Street.

Once there, FOJ members will renovate and use it as an environmental and interpretive center, and undertake a fundraising campaign to secure the $100,000 they estimate it will take to move, renovate and bring it up to code in a phased renovation plan over the next year or two.

FOJ president John Richter and board member Jerry Aydlott, city commissioners and the city attorney discussed some details of the lease at last week's commission meeting.

The group had questioned whether they could sub-lease the upstairs of the two-story building to another tenant to help generate income for renovating and maintaining the building.

The suggestion was met with resistance by most commissioners as well as city attorney Scott Beatty who said "the city is not accustomed to being a landlord."

His concern is that it's city park property and said "the city has usually reacted in a different fashion in money-making activities in the city park" and that he's not sure it was intended as an income producing property.

In response, Richter pointed to Little League concessions and an Elm Pointe tenant.

Commissioner Ruth Gee said she doesn't think it's a good idea.

"I would never vote for it. Never," Gee said. Nor would she vote for a clause in the lease allowing discussion of it at a future date

Commissioner Greg Chappuies agreed, saying, "I don't think there's any way we can allow that."

"We did not ask you to move there or ask you to incur the cost," Gee added.

She did suggest a provision that FOJ could try to attract a non-profit organization to split the expenses of occupying the site, but not as its landlord.

"We were hoping to recover some of the investment," Aydlott said, not make a profit.

Richter said he didn't want to kill the project over this issue, but was just looking for a way to maximize its potential for both FOJ and the city.

The lease should be finalized this week. The building could be moved as early as this week and the foundation dug as soon as next week.

With the 4th on Sunday, Boyne's celebration will have a few changes

Since the 4th of July falls on Sunday this year, there will be a few changes to the schedule for Boyne City's celebration.

The biggest change is the start of the Grand Parade. Instead of the traditional 10 a.m. starting time, the parade will begin at 9:30 a.m. to allow area churches to hold their regular services.

The 4th of July organizing committee was asked to consider changing the time by the Boyne City Ministerial Association. The ministers thought changing the celebration to July 3 was the best option, and changing the parade time to the afternoon of July 4 the second best alternative.

The committee decided against moving to Saturday because of the criticism it received the last time the 4th fell on a Sunday and events were moved to Saturday and because of opposition from veterans' groups.

The change on such short notice would also have created more work for the organizing committee, which consists of 10 volunteers.

Moving the parade to later in the day was ruled out because of the difficulty of keeping cars off the parade route. "We cannot secure the downtown area for that period of time," said Ann Parks, who co-chairs the 4th of July committee with Liz Kroondyk.

Holding the parade later in the day would also conflict with Horton Bay's parade, which begins early in the afternoon.

The staging area for the parade has also been changed. Registration will be held at the old water works building at the corner of Division and Park streets.

OPINION

A MOM'S LIFE

Back to a full house for the summer

By CINDI PLACE

After living through an entire school year of being parents of a college student, we find ourselves faced with "putting the family together again" and all the different aspects of having a child who left our nest, returning to our family as an adult.

The visits home over the year have been delightful, but extremely infrequent. So we can only imagine what comes next.

On one hand, we are excited about the prospect of having everyone together again under one roof. No longer will we wake up in the middle of the night, wondering if our eldest is safe in her dorm or out wandering the streets. Or, presumably, staying up late in the college library doing homework.

And we will have a break from the long, emotional telephone conversations about how much work there is in college, and that staying out late is messing up her internal clock. And that she has a cold, again. Of course, these conversations would be followed up with an uplifting call about how great a certain professor was or how much fun watching videos and eating pizza with new friends can be. We learned to ask right up front "are you okay" whenever we would answer the telephone, just to gauge how much time we needed to plan on talking -- in case dinner was on the stove, or something.

Actually, I think we've had more quality conversations with our daughter since she left for college than the entire time she lived at home. We've certainly discussed a broad range of subjects. Some we were more comfortable with than others.

But now, as our prodigal daughter returns to the fold, we find ourselves faced with a few adjustments; like moving the little brother back into another brother's room, just for the summer, of course; learning to share the family car again; setting another place at the dinner table and planning meals that one more person will enjoy; remembering to check one more schedule on an already packed calendar; and having one more wonderful person to give us a hug when we least expect it.

'The Day of Graduation'

BY JASMINE LAISURE

It's taken 4 years to get to this day
The Day of Graduation
4 years of hard work, dedication, practice
Most of us have grown up together
Watched each other
Learned from each other
We walk along, 2 by 2,
Showing off in our red and black gowns
Finally getting to say "look at me,
Look what I've accomplished."
Most of us saying to ourselves,
"It's finally over. I'll miss it so much."
The class of 1999
The last class of the millennium
We've seen so much
We've seen so little
Cheer, cheer for East Jordan High
Goodbye, I'll miss you
Hello world, here I am
I'm so scared
These are the thoughts of a graduate
We've learned so much
We know so little
It's taken 4 years to come this far
The Day of Graduation
We throw our caps up
We yell and shout
We're finally done
The Day of Graduation.

(Jasmine Laisure is a senior at East Jordan High School. She and the rest of her class will graduate on June 6 at 2 p.m. Boyne City High School's graduation ceremony is June 4 at 7 p.m. Graduation at Boyne Falls is June 5 at 8 p.m.)

IN INK

Not all outings are created equal

By GINA SOLTIS KENDELL

My husband went on a fishing trip last weekend. It was a "guys' weekend." Women keep out.

He and his brothers, father and friends chartered a couple of motor homes, drove to Canada and flew into some remote spot. Fancy.

In the weeks prior to lift-off, a couple of letters filled with degradation and the mocking of each other's manliness were mailed back and forth, I suppose as a warm-up to a weekend filled with all sorts of macho tomfoolery.

I actually found the correspondence, which was riddled with bathroom humor, quite hilarious. My perusal of it probably earned my husband some sort of hazing. (To all his fraternity brothers: this doesn't mean he's shown me the secret handshake.)

I grew envious — not bitter (really) — that the fellas had never planned, in such minutia, anything that included me.

From itineraries to checklists to expenses to how many hands of cribbage would be played — it was all there in a grid. All the details were ironed out ahead of time for a trip to, what I've been told, is God's country.

And when I asked them why they didn't want me to come along, I was met with dumbfounded stares. But no answers, I assure you, I know it's not to "get away from me" because I'm lots of fun.

Granted, I'm planning what should be a grand trip for myself this summer — but that's beside the point.

The point is — well there really is no point except that the inevitable "ladies weekend" really doesn't compare.

The sit-around-eating-call-the-babysitter-scenario or shop-till-you-drop scene pale in comparison to what I'm envisioning they're doing across the border.

What they did do was fish eight to 10 hour days on the waters of a 32,000 acre lake dotted with islands, with only a couple of lodges on its shorelines. They stayed up late playing cards, ate lots of fresh Walleye, potatoes and baked beans.

Don't they know I love that kind of stuff?

The half-hearted (and you know it's retaliatory) ladies weekend is lame in comparison. And in the end, it's just another "guys' weekend" because the ladies are gone!

Yes, I suppose a tiny little part of me feels ever-so-slightly rejected because they don't want me there. And I understand (no I don't) this male ritual kind of stuff.

All right, I admit it. I rented a few chick-flicks while my husband was gone that he has no interest in seeing. As a matter of fact, he actually rented one for me before he left — part of a care package he gathers for me (read: placates me with) before his all-men weekends of golf, fishing, boating and putting in the dock.

When I picked him up after the trip from the agreed upon meeting point, I was met with hugs and 'how are yous' from all the guys, by then rather aromatic, and ruddy with beards or attempts-at-beards. A remark about the hairiness of one of the fellas by another, was cut short when they saw me. Chivalry is not dead.

Perhaps a Bell's beer, Ben & Jerry's Chubby-Hubby ice cream, decorating magazines and Annie Hall are really all I needed after all. Perhaps.

Must parade conflict with church services?

TO THE EDITOR:

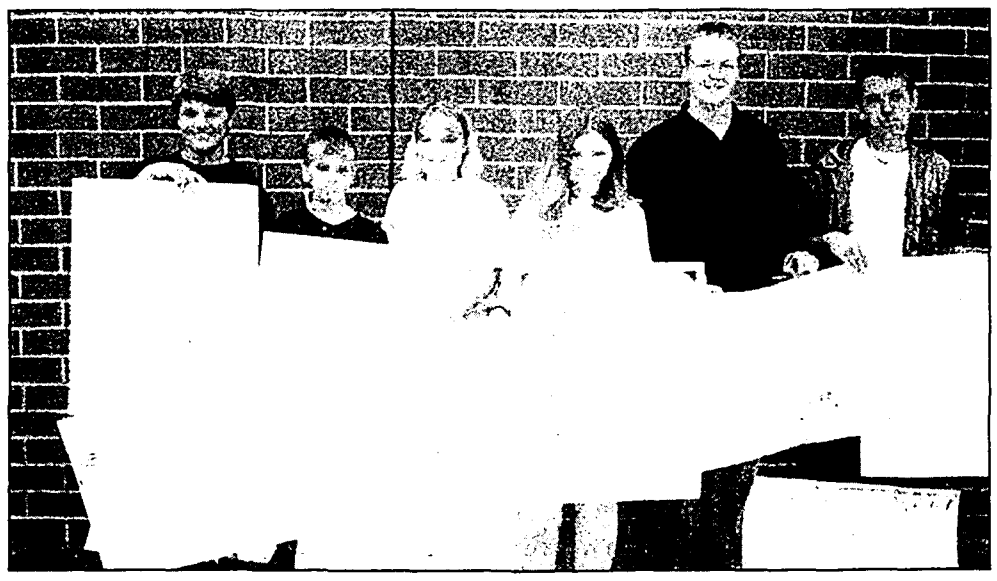

The Fourth of July falls on Sunday this year, and I recently learned that the parade in Boyne City is scheduled at a time that conflicts with the majority of the churches worship services. I believe this is a bad choice of priorities, and certainly fails to convey to our young people the values this country has represented since its beginning.

As a nation, we have so much to celebrate. We are very blessed. And those blessings are a result of our founding fathers building this country on the firm foundation of biblical principles and honoring God. I am all in favor of celebrating, but not at the cost of putting it before worshipping God.

God has been shut out of many homes, and the result is too many broken families. We took God out of the courtrooms, and we have all been appalled at the verdicts being handed down in the name of justice. We kicked God out of our schools, and now we have children killing each other. Let's not make the mistake of squeezing God out of our city.

I appreciate the people who work hard to organize the many activities we all enjoy throughout the summer. They do a fine job. I just feel strongly that this is something that needs serious reconsideration.

Hugs from our hearts

LETTERS

Pressure will mount as waste solutions are sought

TO THE EDITOR:

Off again. On again. Off again. On again, unfortunately. On May 6, Waste Management decided to once again announce their intention to present a request for an expansion of the Cedar Ridge Landfill to the Charlevoix County Planning Commission.

During this meeting, Waste Management was most interested in having the commissioners change their vote that found the plan NOT in compliance with the current Charlevoix County Solid Waste Plan. Waste Management does not seem interested in submitting a revised request but rather in finding a way to circumvent the wording of the current plan.

We would like to take a moment to remind Waste Management that the planning commission is charged with reviewing a request to see if it meets the siting criteria in the plan. The planning commissioners did not develop the Solid Waste Plan nor do they have the authority to deviate from it or to alter the criteria.

If Waste Management wishes to request an expansion of the Cedar Ridge Landfill or siting for another landfill, it should present its case to the Solid Waste Planning Committee, which is in the process of developing a new solid waste plan. This suggestion was made to Waste Management at a much earlier meeting.

Many of us are concerned about rising rates. Now is the time to explore all possibilities for recycling to reduce the amount of waste. It may also be a good time to check with other companies for competitive pricing.

We have received letters from many of you supporting the "no expansion" position taken by Eveline Township, the Charlevoix County Planning Commission, and WATCH (Water and Air Team for Charlevoix). As Waste Management increases the pressure, it's important that we hold firm in our protection of the pristine area in which we live and do business.

RIBBON CUTTING FOR NEW SCHOOL IS JUNE 8

A big day for Boyne Falls School

Boyne Falls School will hold a ribbon cutting and groundbreaking ceremony on Tuesday, June 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the site where its new K-12 school will be built on M-75 between Boyne Falls and Boyne City. The public is invited to attend.

Construction is slated to begin the third week of June when workers will begin moving earth.

"That's going to be tight, but we think we can do it," superintendent Pat Smith said.

Comstock Construction Company out of Traverse City, a construction management firm, will oversee the building project, in lieu of a general contractor.

"Pending delivery of the design, we are going to move through the earth grading in preparing for site utilities and relocate some existing utilities to allow the school to occur as drawn," Comstock vice president Thomas Darga said.

Concrete, foundation and masonry designs are expected to be complete in the next two to three months and bid packages will go out throughout June and July.

"Over a 60 day period as the design completes itself with community input, we'll be able to break down the project into components and bid packages," Darga said.

Last night, four committees were scheduled to begin the first of a series of meetings to iron out details in the areas of technology, equipment, interior design and color, and athletic fields and equipment.

They will continue to meet separately throughout the summer on Tuesday afternoons.

Preliminary hearing is May 27 for former teacher

Former Boyne City teacher and coach Christi J. Brilinski will face a preliminary hearing on May 27 for charges that she sexually assaulted a 15-year-old female student.

A hearing originally scheduled for May 11 was adjourned.

In late April, Brilinski, 43, of Boyne City turned herself in and was arrested and charged with fourth degree criminal sexual conduct and accosting a child for an immoral purpose. She was released on a $2,000 personal recognizance bond and ordered not to have any contact with the victim.

The criminal sexual conduct charge involves using force or coercion to accomplish sexual contact and carries a two year jail sentence, a $500 fine and AIDS/STD testing upon conviction.

The lesser charge is a misdemeanor which involves accosting, enticing or soliciting a child under the age of 16. It carries a penalty of one year in jail.

Brilinski resigned her teaching position late last month. She taught English, physical education, was the high school girls track coach and a former athletic director.

Nursing home

home) and naturally would hope for that," Ruby said.

Even now Grace occasionally tells them she's going to "go get a place of my own."

Her resistance to move came with bouts of anger toward Ruby and Eleanor because of their decision. She wouldn't accept it when staff and administrators tried to tell her she needed the care they could give.

"It's a hard thing for an elderly person to experience," Ruby said. It's difficult to lose that independence of being in their own home.

"You wish you could have her at home," Ruby said.

She thinks about how Grace took care of her own parents and her husband's parents.

"It makes you feel bad that maybe you should do it," Ruby said.

"The staff of course is wonderful to her. They come in and hug her and kiss her and outdo themselves. She always says 'oh, they're so good,' " Ruby said. "Sometimes the staff gets a better reaction than we do. Sometime she'll have a better smile for them."

When Grace first moved to Grandvue, she would sew and mend. She enjoyed being helpful and was an excellent seamstress.

"She used to be real conscientious of other patients," Ruby said recalling that her mother would help another resident cut apples who couldn't do it herself, going to her bed everyday to peel them and give her the pieces.

"One thing I've noticed there is that there are a lot of patients who take responsibility for the other patients," Ruby said.

"I think it's good for them. I think it gives them a good feeling to help someone else and say 'I'm not so bad off after all.' "

There was initial improvement when Grace moved to Grandvue. At home she didn't want to eat, take her medication and so forth.

"One day she said to me, 'since when do daughters tell mothers what to do?' "

Ruby replied, "Well, when mothers don't know what to do anymore, then daughters have to tell them."

It's almost easier for her to take instructions from a stranger instead of her own children.

After 10 years there, Grace is still mentally astute but physically incapacitated. Sometimes she's good at visiting, and other times she's quiet.

She wakes around 6 a.m. and waits for breakfast. After eating, she lays back down until around noon, and spends the rest of the day in her recliner, watching what's happening outside, or her roommate crochet.

"I think she gets the feeling she's back doing that because she liked to crochet," Ruby said.

Two of the four beds in her room are occupied. A few personal effects are placed about. A wedding photo, more than 70 years old, is among them. The items don't make it home. But it's clean and bright.

She used to read a lot, but can't really read much anymore. Still, Grace said her days go very fast.

She especially likes to recall the things that used to be. Talking about her siblings and parents and when Ruby and Eleanor were children "that's what I think brings her the most joy," Ruby said.

During her illness, Grace asked Ruby to please take her home, saying "I won't be any trouble for you.

"I said 'mother you require 24-hour a day care. I'm nearly 70 years old. I can't do it anymore.' "

"She doesn't think about our age," Ruby said. Her children couldn't possibly be that old.

Grandvue is good to the families, Ruby said. If she spends the night when her mother is sick, they automatically bring her a tray of food. On her birthday, staff brought a cake bedecked in candles and sang to her.

"I feel very at home there."

Caring for her father-in-law at home and then moving him to Grandvue helped prepare Ruby for moving her mother there.

On top of her frequent visits, she is a Grandvue volunteer and serves as an officer of the auxiliary.

"It's become like a second home for me."

She recommends to those considering moving a loved one to a nursing home to visit different ones for an extended period of time to see what's going on.

"Nursing homes are something you need to shop for," she said.

"I think it makes it a little easier for you to make that decision," she said.

Of Grandvue itself, she doesn't think there's any better.

She and Eleanor have already told their own children that when they get to the point where they can't take care of themselves, they would like to move to Grandvue.

"We don't want them to live with that guilt, nor be a burden to them. We've experienced it. You know what it's like," Ruby said. "I want to make that decision so my children won't have to make that decision."

Rehabilitation is all some short-term nursing home patients need before returning home

When 88-year-old Muriel Zoulek's arthritic knee buckled, it sent her crashing to the floor, severely bruising her arm.

At the time, she was visiting her granddaughter in Arizona, who, when she discovered Muriel three hours later at daybreak, said "Grandma, what are you doing down there?"

"I knew my arm wasn't broken, but I couldn't get myself up," Muriel said.

"The only thing I could think of was getting back home," said the East Jordan resident.

She hoped Bob, a physical therapist who had worked on her tendinitis before, could help her out again with some therapy as a temporary resident at Grandvue Medical Care Facility.

Although one part of the population at Grandvue is long-term dementia, or dementia-related residents, the other portion is people undergoing rehabilitation for things such as strokes, broken hips or accidents like Muriel's.

Grandvue executive director Penny Drury said that today more nursing homes are involved in rehabilitating patients. Rather than a patient stay in a more expensive hospital room, they can receive round the clock care and daily therapy at places like Grandvue.

Therapists from Charlevoix Area Hospital and the Boyne Rehabilitation Center come in each day to do physical and occupational therapy. Nurse aides are trained to do a second set of follow-up therapy in the evenings.

People don't move in permanently until they need a higher level of care. "The acuity of nursing homes in general has gone up," Drury said.

Muriel stayed for two weeks working with Bob and Becky, an occupational therapist. She was well aware of the services at Grandvue, as her husband had spent just over a month there before he died in 1993.

"They were really, truly good," Muriel, a retired R.N., said of the therapists

"I made some good friends too."

Now a therapist comes into her home from the health department.

"They're all complimenting me on my get up and go," she said.

■ Don Nessen was in the right place to save Harbor Springs family's vacation

Everyone knows Charlevoix County Transit transports people, now it can say it also saves people's vacations and a Harbor Springs family is grateful for that.

It was a typical morning for Don Nessen of Boyne City on March 23 as he drove his Regional Ride bus on US 31 to Traverse City.

But the routine of the day was broken as he came upon a family of five from Harbor Springs who were just involved in a van-deer accident near Eastport.

Fortunately, no members of the family were injured, but their van was inoperable and they were in a hurry to get to the Cherry Capital Airport to catch the first leg of their trip to Hawaii.

Nessen stopped to offer the family assistance and he quickly set in motion a plan to get the family to the airport on time.

Working with Traverse City-area dispatcher Frank Rutherford, Nessen made arrangements to have the airline called and asked if it could hold the flight for a few minutes. He also asked the dispatcher to make calls to have the family's van hauled away, and arranged to have another bus rerouted to cover the rest of Nessen's route.

Then he had the family hop on the bus and off to the airport they went.

Thanks to the good fortune of hitting only one red light and not getting caught in traffic, Nessen was able to deliver the family to the airport — with two minutes to spare. The airlines had a luggage carrier waiting at the door and the flight was delayed only a couple of minutes.

Nessen's efforts did not go without notice. He was recently presented the State of Michigan's Public Transit Heart O' Gold Award in recognition of an "act of community service by a public transit good Samaritan."

The plaque he received reads: "This action is a shining example of good citizenship and willingness to go an extra step to be of service to our riders and our community. This act of civic responsibility is to be highly commended."

Nessen started driving for Charlevoix Transit in 1996. Prior to that he worked 28 years at the Advance Power Plant.

"I couldn't have done this alone," Nessen said. "I had to have a lot of help.

Don Nessen recently received the Heart O' Gold Award.

"This award is beautiful, but it was nothing compared to seeing the looks on the family's faces as they made their flight."

BOYNE CITY HALL NEWS

By SUE HOBBS

THE ENTRANCE to City Hall is being renovated to meet ADA codes. The ramp was not wide enough and the door did not meet the requirements. We apologize for the inconvenience. For the time being, entrance to City Hall will be through the north entrance or the Police Department entrance at the rear of the building. The project should be completed by July 1.

RECENTLY City Hall has been contacted with reports of bushes and small trees missing from Maple Lawn cemetery. One family removed rose bushes at the request of the City and planted a $60 rose tree which didn't have thorns. A week later it was gone. This has happened often enough that it is not just a one time thing, it is getting to be a problem. If you see anyone removing shrubs and trees from the cemetery, please call the City Police Department at 582-6611 and report it.

THERE IS AN opening on the City's Park and Recreation Advisory Board. If you are interested, please call 582-6597 and we will send you an application to serve on the City's Boards.

(Sue Hobbs is city clerk and assistant city manager for Boyne City.)

Trish Wright is teacher of the year at NCMC

Boyne City resident Trish Wright was named North Central Michigan College's "Teacher of the Year" during the college's commencement ceremonies to a standing ovation from the faculty, staff and graduating students.

Wright has just completed her first year as a full time faculty member in the Communications and Humanities Department at NCMC. Prior to that she served as an adjunct instructor at the college for three years.

Trish Wright

The award is organized by the NCMC Student Senate and voted on by students at the college, "which to me is even more rewarding, so I am very pleased," Wright said referring to the fact that students, rather than colleagues, chose her for the award.

"They are the reason I am there," she said.

Wright teaches literature and composition classes. She is partial to multi-cultural and contemporary literature and excited to be offering a course in mythology next year.

"I've been thrilled in the last couple of years a couple of times," Wright said. First in being offered the teaching position and then being named Teacher of the Year.

"I see our role as not just instructional, although that is primary, but as a service," Wright said of the college, pointing out its offering of enrichment courses, art shows, global awareness programs, and business and industry training.

"It's very important to me to be associated with continuing learning — lifelong learning," she said.

"I guess that's why I decided that becoming a full-time part of this institution was well worth leaving the freedom of the free lance world," Wright said. Prior to joining NCMC she worked in advertising and as a free-lance writer specializing in technical writing.

"Plus I get to teach the stuff I love," she said.

Beaver Island preserve donated to conservancy

The Charlevoix County Land Conservancy announces the new Margaret P. Erber Nature Preserve on Beaver Island.

Donated by Tom and Sue Erber of Charlevoix, the Margaret P. Erber Preserve is located on Little Sand Bay at the mouth of the little Jordan River where the river meets beach.

Tom Erber is the son of Margaret and Karl Erber. "We are happy to donate this to the Charlevoix County Land Conservancy," Tom said. "We wanted it to always remain in its natural state."

"This was Margaret's favorite place in the world," Sue said. "It was her little bit of heaven. She loved the river. Friends and family gathered there and the children spent many happy summer afternoons making rafts and exploring the pond and river."

Margaret P. (Fitch) Erber and her husband Karl were long time Charlevoix residents and Karl conducted business on Beaver Island. Margaret was a charter member of the Garden Club. She loved flowers and nature and was an avid gardener.

The Charlevoix County Land Conservancy's mission is to advance community land stewardship and to protect critical lands. The Conservancy is located at 108 Park Ave. in Charlevoix. For information about the conservancy and its activities, call 237-9335.

Backyard series taking river tour

The "Beauty in our Backyard" series, sponsored by the Charlevoix County Land Conservancy, continues Saturday, May 29, with a river tour of the St. Clair-Six Mile Lake (Great Blue Heron) Natural Area.

Participants are asked to bring their own canoe or kayak to the South Arm Preserve, 3 1/2 miles from East Jordan on the Ellsworth/East Jordan Road, by 9:30 a.m. The preserve is at the east end of St. Clair Lake. Maps are available at the Conservancy office, or call 237-9335 for directions.

The river is the longest undeveloped navigable river on the Upper Chain of Lakes. The great blue heron and other birds and animals are often sighted from the river corridor.

A car pool will leave the conservancy office at 9 a.m. The public is invited. Call the office if you would like to share a canoe or rowboat.

LUKIM YU SEE YOU LATER

The Peters family in final stages of preparation for year-long mission trip to Ukarumpa

By GINA SOLTIS KENDELL

Kim and Gary Peters are still smiling — a good sign since in less than two months they and their three children will be moving half way around the world to be missionaries in Papua New Guinea for at least one year.

Well over a year ago the couple began planning for the journey to the village of Ukarumpa where Gary will teach fourth or fifth grade science and Kim will teach third grade children of Wycliffe Bible Translators.

Gary will take a leave from his fifth grade teaching position in East Jordan and Kim will resign from her special education teaching job at Boyne City Schools.

As the departure date draws near, they are still steadfastly committed to the mission which means uprooting their family — Nina, Nathan and Tasha — leaving their teaching jobs, and living a simpler life, materially at least, in a Third World Country.

Kim and Gary Peters

"We've had our peaks and valleys, lots of them, just like in Ukarumpa," Kim said of their preparation to move to the mountainous region.

"It seems like neat things always happen when we're in those valleys," Gary said.

They recall one night when their anxiety — built up because they hadn't heard from anyone in Ukarumpa for two months — rendered them sleepless. After Kim finally drifted off, Gary, at 3 a.m., decided to check e-mail and found an unsolicited letter from their future school's principal saying to hang in there because everything's fine.

"He had the exact words needed to calm us," Kim said.

Shortly thereafter their church pastor invited them to come pray, without knowing their state of worry.

Other coincidences helped keep them focused as well.

For example, the children play the piano and Gary dabbles a bit too. Responses to his e-mail inquiries about the instrument's availability in Ukarumpa were that there were just a few in the area.

Before much time passed, they learned the house they will be renting has one.

In another unusual circumstance, they met with a Central Lake woman who is recently back from a religious mission in Papua, just a few hundred miles away from where the Peters will move.

"It's been fun, in a weird kind of way," Gary said.

Financing the trip on their own has been their greatest struggle so far, but it hasn't scared or deterred them.

They won't be paid for their teaching work and they must also raise the money to cover all their family's expenses — housing, food, clothing, airfare — beforehand.

Their airline expenses are almost covered. They've secured half of the rest of the expenses and are still beating the bushes for the remainder.

"I had all these benchmarks in my head as far as funding," Gary said. He thought they'd be finished by May. Kim, more optimistic, had targeted February.

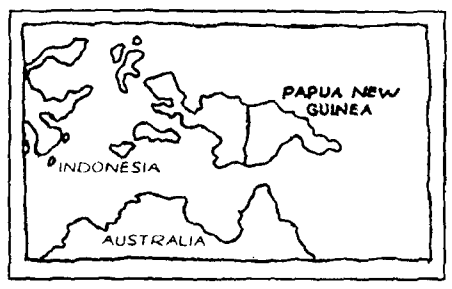

"My benchmark isn't necessarily God's benchmark," Gary said.

"We know that not everyone can support us (with money)," Gary said. And he recognizes and understands that some people may be skeptical, "but they are a good organization," he said, with only an estimated 13 percent of funds allocated for "overhead."

"Barring something weird, we'll be in Ukarumpa teaching," Gary said. "We're going to make it."

Preparation has included not only soliciting funds — something they still haven't taken a shine too — but asking for prayers which is just as important for the mission.

"My biggest fear is that once we get over there, people will forget to pray," Kim said, also confident the money will come. In her new home, she acknowledges, there will be a whole new group to pray for them too.

A sea of paperwork has occupied much of their planning. Work permits, passports, statutory declarations — assurances that they've been truthful in their documentation — Visas, character references and letters from the bank attesting that they have enough cash reserve to "get out of Dodge" if the need arises.

There were medical physicals, chest x-rays, HIV tests, vaccinations and more.

Boxes of their belongings — including five bicycles — are already en route via a ship and are by now in the middle of the Pacific Ocean or in port somewhere.

Various sources say shipping could take anywhere from eight weeks all the way to six months, with the Peters family scheduled to arrive in late July.

Enough clothing was packed to allow growing room for the children in case the mission stretches to two years.

For herself, Kim packed around 20 dresses, 20 shirts, three pairs of pants and only a few pair of shorts as women aren't allowed to wear them except in their homes. Gary will take a large suitcase of clothing and send another box at departure.

They've sent over necessities such as bedding including pillows and blankets, some toys and games — a scarcity there — soap, shampoo and only a few kitchen supplies. They missed the first shipment which would have allowed most of their kitchen items.

Packing wasn't a simple task with a list suggesting "everything you'd need except furniture."

But, they've also heard they can rent household goods, and perhaps the home they're staying in might be stocked as well. Even with that uncertainty, they aren't expending too much energy worrying.

They've yet to buy rubber boots for the rainy season, and Kim will take a Teflon pan which other missionaries say they wish they had.

A renter will move into their Boyne City home. At the end of June the Peters will go to North Carolina for three weeks of training. Then they will visit relatives in Georgia and head to New Guinea.

The family cat will be "adopted" by a friend or relative while they're gone.

Family members who at first didn't want them to make the trip, have grown to accept that it's their destiny.

They can't argue it anymore, said Kim, "The signs are there."

She recalls asking for a sign herself from God while she was out running one day and feeling anxious, nervous and scared and questioning if they were actually going to be able to go when they planned. She said she wanted to find a Petoskey stone.

"Well, I felt like I shouldn't ask and that I should just trust and so I stopped looking," Kim said.

About 40 minutes later on the way home, she found a stone.

"I looked at it, figured it wasn't a very good stone, so it didn't count as a sign. Two steps later there was another one. By the time I got home I had four Petoskey stones in my pocket. I didn't search for any of them, they were just there. I have them on my counter to remind us not to question, or worry too much."

"I've learned a lot about trust and patience," Gary said of preparing for the journey.

"Big time," Kim quickly added.

"I realized my wife is even more even-keeled than I thought," Gary said.

Regardless of what comes, the journey so far has been worth it.

"It's been really neat to see the response from people and the love that's come from them," Gary said.

Holiness Camp week opens June 13

The Northern Michigan Holiness Camp hosts its 88th annual meeting June 13-20.

The camp is located on North Park Street in Boyne City, five blocks north of the Dairy Queen.

The Rev. David Clardie of Sterling, Ill., will be the speaker and Ken Osborne of Traverse City will be the musician for the eight-day, old fashioned camp meeting.

Services will be at 6 p.m. Sundays, and 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday. A vacation Bible School will be offered to children week nights.

The camp was organized in 1911 by men and women from the holiness churches in the area.

The original tent, benches and sawdust floor were replaced by a wooden frame building. The tabernacle was improved about 20 years ago to seat a larger number of people.

Through the year, the camp sponsors hymnsings at area churches and those congregations will provide refreshments during the camp meetings.

The public is welcome to attend.

SPORTS

Ann Gaudard captured the regional championship title in the 100-meter dash.

A jubilant Boyne City 3200 meter relay team broke the school record again and qualified for the state meet. From left are: Jane Stieber Kelsey Brewer, Mindy McCutcheon and Jackie Cyr.

Boyne City's Nicole Kurtz finished just ahead of East Jordan's Suzie Malpass in the 100 meter hurdles. Kurtz's time qualified her for a berth in the state meet.

The 3200 relay team of Scott Fisher, Chris Bacon, Tarn Leach and Micah Middaugh broke the school record for the second time this year and earned a trip to state.

Earning a ticket to state

Ann Gaudard's first place finish in the 100 meter dash at Saturday's track meet secured her the regional championship in the event and assured her a spot at the state track finals on June 5 at Saginaw High School.

"According to the numbers she wasn't supposed to win. But she had a different idea," coach Tom Nagurka said referring to her seeding in the race. "She had a great start out of the blocks and didn't relinquish the lead."

Gaudard, a senior, was the only local runner to finish first. She will join five other Boyne City girls at state and altogether they will compete in four different events.

The Lady Ramblers took seventh place overall at the weekend meet. The East Jordan boys placed fourth and will send four runners in three events. East Jordan girls were 12th and had two athletes qualify, and the Boyne City boys placed 17th.

First and second place finishers automatically qualified for the state meet and athletes finishing within predetermined times, or exceeding certain distances and heights, also advanced to the final.

Boyne's 3200 meter relay team of freshmen Jane Stieber, Kelsey Brewer, Mindy McCutcheon and junior Jackie Cyr broke their previously set school record with a time of 10:03.7 for third place and qualified for state, almost 20 seconds faster than the minimum time needed for advancement.

Nicole Kurtz was fourth in the high hurdles at 16.52, falling just under the 16.6 time needed to go to state.

Jackie Cyr, the only Boyne City runner going to state in two events, also made it in the 800 meter run with a time of 2:26.4 and a fourth place finish.

Boyne's 400 meter relay team took fourth place, just 3/10 of second slower than needed to qualify for state. Wendy Chrysler was fourth in the high jump.

EAST JORDAN BOYS coaches were pleased with the team's fourth place finish in such a tough regional field.

Tarn Leach and Micah Middaugh, members of the East Jordan cross country state championship team, both qualified for state in the 1600 and 3200 meter runs as well as with the 3200 meter relay team which includes Chris Bacon and Scott Fisher, who ran four events on the day himself.

The relay team took second place, breaking their school record for the second time this season at 8:14.30.

Long jumper Chad Muma leaped his personal best of 20'2 1/2" and a third place finish. Ken Slough took third in the discus, after being injured all week. Don Priest placed fifth in the 300 hurdles, running a personal best time of 41.70. The 1600 relay team of Tony Prevo, Scott Fisher, Matt Shaw and Don Priest ran its season best time of 3:35.50.

FOR THE EAST JORDAN GIRLS Holly Petkiewicz will go to state in the 800 meter run with a 2:29.5, Suzie Malpass qualified in the 300 meter hurdles with a time of 49.4. Malpass also took fifth place in the 100 meter hurdles.

Catey Moses took third place in the long jump with a 15'2.5" jump.

BOYNE CITY'S Sean Ku was fourth in the 100 meter dash and Andy Fowler was sixth in discus. Shawn Wiesler knocked 20 seconds off his time in the 3200 meter run with a 10:26.3.

Runners shoot out of the blocks during a 100-meter dash preliminary heat. Boyne City's Sean Ku, second from left, finished fourth overall. Zach Jones, far right, was running for East Jordan.

League champs

■ Ramblers finish conference season with perfect mark

It's been a familar script all season long — fall behind early, then roar back in the late innings.

That was the script the Boyne City Rambler varsity baseball team followed again last Wednesday against Kalkaska, and the end result was much the same as previous games — victory.

But this time around, the significance of their two wins took on greater meaning. The wins gave the Ramblers the Lake Michigan Conference championship and a perfect league record.

"The kids looked really good," said coach Beano Archey, who has guided the Ramblers to an 11-0-1 conference record. "The coaching staff is extremely proud of them. They work hard and are a good group to be with."

The conference championship is the first for the Ramblers since 1994.

The Ramblers won the first game 5-3, after trailing 3-0, and they won the second game 7-5 after trailing 4-2 heading into the fifth inning.

In game one, the Ramblers' big inning came in the fourth when they scored four runs. Jesse Simon earned the victory for Boyne City. He allowed two hits, three walks and struck out three.

"After a rough first inning, Jesse settled down and threw well," Archey said, "and the kids played strong defense to pull it out once again."

Offensively, Justin Callahan started the Ramblers' four-run fourth inning with a double and he also singled in the game. Jeremy Peck and Andy Douglas each had two singles and Simon, Josh Bush and Jeremy Grice each singled.

In game two, Callahan was the winning pitcher. He also struggled early, but settled down and tamed Kalkaska's bats.

In the fifth, Joe Jones started the inning with a single but then the Ramblers made two outs before Simon came to the plate and tripled. Then Nick Karaszewski and Douglas singled, and they came home when Grice doubled.

Also getting hits for the Ramblers were Luke Reinhardt, Peck and Bush.

In addition to the Ramblers' strong pitching and timely hits, they also had a nearly airtight defense. They committed just two errors all night.

Lady Ramblers sweep Kalkaska

The Boyne City Lady Ramblers ended their conference season with a sweep of Kalkaska last Wednesday, winning 6-1 and 12-9.

The Ramblers completed the conference season with an 8-4 record.

Brandy Barren was the winning pitcher in game one. She gave up seven hits, walked two and struck out eight.

Kelly Sweet led the hitting attack with four hits, including three doubles. April Roberts and Ellie Neidhamer each had two hits, Barren doubled and Emily Roland, Amanda Bargas and Carleen Pearsall each singled.

In game two, the Ramblers' defense was less than stellar while Kalkaska's pitchers had trouble throwing strikes. The Ramblers had 20 walks in the game.

Bethany Tomkins started for the Ramblers and went 4 2/3 innings. She gave up four hits, walked one and struck out four. Barren pitched the final 1 1/3 innings.

Barren had two hits for the Ramblers and Roland and Roberts each singled.

In non-league action Friday, the Ramblers lost to Petoskey 4-3 and 4-2.

East Jordan hosts district tournament

East Jordan will host the baseball and softball district tournaments on Saturday, June 5.

Boyne City and East Jordan will play in the first rounds. The games begin at 10 a.m.

In game two, starting 30 minutes after the first game, Charlevoix will play Mancelona.

The winners of the districts will advance to the regional tournament.

The City Clerk shall record on the registration books payment by the Issuer of each installment of principal or interest or both when made and the canceled checks or other records evidencing such payments shall be returned to and retained by the City Clerk.

Section 6. Registration and Transfer. Any Bond may be transferred upon the books required to be kept pursuant to this section by the person in whose name it is registered, in person or by the registered owner's duly authorized attorney, upon surrender of the Bond for cancellation, accompanied by delivery of a duly executed written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the transfer agent. Whenever any Bond or Bonds shall be surrendered for transfer, the Issuer shall execute and the transfer agent shall authenticate and deliver a new Bond or Bonds, for like aggregate principal amount. The transfer agent shall require payment by the bondholder requesting the transfer of any tax or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to the transfer. The Transfer Agent shall not be required (i)to issue, register the transfer of or exchange any Bond during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the day of the giving of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption as described in the form of Series 1999A Bonds contained in Section 18 of this Ordinance and ending at the close of business on the day of that giving of notice, or (ii)to register the transfer of or exchange any Bond so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of Bonds being redeemed in part. The Issuer shall give the transfer agent notice of call for redemption at least 20 days prior to the date notice of redemption is to be given.

The transfer agent shall keep or cause to be kept, at its principal office, sufficient books for the registration and transfer of the Bonds, which shall at all times be open to inspection by the Issuer; and, upon presentation for such purpose, the transfer agent shall, under such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, transfer or cause to be transferred, on said books, Bonds as hereinbefore provided.

If any Bond shall become mutilated, the Issuer, at the expense of the holder of the Bond, shall execute, and the transfer agent shall authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor in exchange and substitution for the mutilated Bond, upon surrender to the transfer agent of the mutilated Bond. If any Bond issued under this Ordinance shall be lost, destroyed or stolen, evidence of the loss, destruction or theft may be submitted to the transfer agent and, if this evidence is satisfactory to both and indemnity satisfactory to the transfer agent shall be given, and if all requirements of any applicable law including Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended ("Act 354"), being sections 129.131 to 129.135, inclusive, of the Michigan Compiled Laws have been met, the Issuer, at the expense of the owner, shall execute, and the transfer agent shall thereupon authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor and bearing the statement required by Act 354, or any applicable law hereafter enacted, in lieu of and in substitution for the Bond so lost, destroyed or stolen. If any such Bond shall have matured or shall be about to mature, instead of issuing a substitute Bond the transfer agent may pay the same without surrender thereof.

Section 7. Payment of Bonds; Security. The Series 1999A Bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable from the Net Revenues, and to secure such payment, there is hereby created a statutory lien upon the whole of the Net Revenues which shall be a first lien to continue until payment in full of the principal of and interest on all bonds payable from the Net Revenues, or, until sufficient cash or Sufficient Government Obligations have been deposited in trust for payment in full of all Bonds of a series then outstanding, principal and interest on such Bonds to maturity, or, if called for redemption, to the date fixed for redemption together with the amount of the redemption premium, if any. Upon deposit of cash or Sufficient Government Obligations, as provided in the previous sentence, the statutory lien shall be terminated with respect to that series of Bonds, the holders of that series shall have no further rights under this Ordinance except for payment from the deposited funds, and the Bonds of that series shall no longer be considered to be outstanding under this Ordinance.

Section 8. Bondholders Rights; Receiver. The holder or holders of the Bonds representing in the aggregate not less than twenty percent (20%) of the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding, may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, protect and enforce the statutory lien upon the Net Revenues of the System, and may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, enforce and compel performance of all duties of the officers of the Issuer, including the fixing of sufficient rates, the collection of Revenues, the proper segregation of the Revenues of the System and the proper application thereof. The statutory lien upon the Net Revenues, however, shall not be construed as to compel the sale of the System or any part thereof.

If there is a default in the payment of the principal of or interest on the Bonds, any court having jurisdiction in any proper action may appoint a receiver to administer and operate the System on behalf of the Issuer and under the direction of the court, and by and with the approval of the court to perform all of the duties of the officers of the Issuer more particularly set forth herein and in Act 94.

The holder or holders of the Bonds shall have all other rights and remedies given by Act 94 and law, for the payment and enforcement of the Bonds and the security therefor.

Section 9. Management; Fiscal Year. The operation, repair and management of the System and the acquiring of the Project shall continue to be under the supervision and control of the City Council. The City Council may employ such person or persons in such capacity or capacities as it deems advisable to carry on the efficient management and operation of the System. The City Council may make such rules and regulations as it deems advisable and necessary to assure the efficient management and operation of the System. The System shall be operated on the basis of an operating year which shall coincide with the City's fiscal year.

Section 10. Rates and Charges. The rates and charges for service furnished by and the use of the System and the methods of collection and enforcement of the collection of the rates shall be those in effect on the date of adoption of this Ordinance.

Section 11. No Free Service or Use. No free service or use of the System, or service or use of the System at less than cost, shall be furnished by the System to any person, firm or corporation, public or private, or to any public agency or instrumentality, including the Issuer.

Section 12. Fixing and Revising Rates; Rate Covenant. The rates now in effect and the rate increases to be placed into effect are estimated to be sufficient to provide for the payment of the expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the System as are necessary to preserve the System in good repair and working order, to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds as the same become due and payable, and the maintenance of the reserve therefor and to provide for all other obligations, expenditures and funds for the System required by law and this Ordinance. In addition, it is agreed that the rates shall be set from time to time so that there shall be produced each fiscal year, beginning with the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, Net Revenues in an amount equal to 125% of the principal of and interest on Bonds coming due in each fiscal year. The rates shall be fixed and revised from time to time as may be necessary to produce these amounts, and it is hereby covenanted and agreed to fix and maintain rates for services furnished by the System at all times sufficient to provide for the foregoing.

Section 13. Funds and Accounts; Flow of Funds. Commencing upon the adoption of this Ordinance, all funds belonging to the System shall be transferred as herein indicated and all Revenues of the System shall be set aside as collected and credited to a fund to be designated WATER SUPPLY SYSTEM RECEIVING FUND (the "Receiving Fund"). In addition, all Revenues in any accounts of the System shall be transferred to the Receiving Fund and credited to the funds and accounts as provided in this section. The Revenues credited to the Receiving Fund are pledged for the purpose of the following funds and shall be transferred or debited from the Receiving Fund periodically in the manner and at the times and in the order of priority hereinafter specified:

A. OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE FUND:

Out of the Revenues credited to the Receiving Fund there shall be first set aside in, or credited to, a fund designated OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE FUND (the "Operation and Maintenance Fund"), monthly a sum sufficient to provide for the payment of the next month's expenses of administration and operation of the System and such current expenses for the maintenance thereof as may be necessary to preserve the same in good repair and working order.

A budget, showing in detail the estimated costs of administration, operation and maintenance of the System for the next ensuing operating year, shall be prepared by the City Council at least 30 days prior to the commencement of each ensuing operating year. No payments shall be made to the Issuer from moneys credited to the Operation and Maintenance Fund except for services directly rendered to the System by the Issuer or its personnel.

B. BOND AND INTEREST REDEMPTION FUND:

There shall be established and maintained a separate depository fund designated BOND AND INTEREST REDEMPTION FUND (the "Redemption Fund"), the moneys on deposit therein from time to time to be used solely for the purpose of paying the principal of, redemption premiums (if any) and interest on the Bonds. The moneys in the Redemption Fund shall be kept on deposit with the bank or trust company where the principal of and interest on the Bonds, or any series thereof, are payable.

Out of the Revenues remaining in the Receiving Fund, after provision for the Operation and Maintenance Fund, there shall be set aside each month commencing July 1, 1999 in the Redemption Fund a sum proportionately sufficient to provide for the payment when due of the current principal of and interest on the Bonds, less any amount in the Redemption Fund representing accrued interest on the Bonds or investment income on amounts on deposit in the Redemption Fund, (including investment income on amounts held as part of the Bond Reserve Account). Commencing July 1, 1999, the amount set aside each month for interest on the Bonds shall be equal to a fraction derived from number of months from July 1, 1999 to first interest payment date of the total amount of interest on the Bonds next coming due. Commencing on the first interest payment date, the amount set aside each month for interest on the Bonds shall be 1/6 of the total amount of interest on the Bonds next coming due. The amount set aside each month for principal, commencing July 1, 1999, shall be equal to that amount which is that fraction derived from number of months from July 1, 1999 to first principal payment date of the amount of principal next coming due by maturity and the amount set aside each month for principal payment commencing on the first principal payment date, shall be 1/12 of the amount of principal next coming due by maturity. If there is any deficiency in the amount previously set aside, that deficiency shall be added to the next succeeding monthly requirements. The amount to be set aside for the payment of principal and interest on any date shall not exceed the amount which, when added to the money on deposit in the Redemption Fund, including investment income thereon, is necessary to pay principal and interest due on the Bonds on the next succeeding principal payment date.

There is established a separate account in the Redemption Fund to be known as the BOND RESERVE ACCOUNT (the "Bond Reserve Account"). There shall be periodically deposited in the Bond Reserve Account in such amounts as the City Council shall annually determine sums sufficient to fund the "Reserve Amount" which shall be the lesser of (1) the maximum annual debt service due in the current or any future year, (2) 125% of the average annual debt service, or (3) 10% of the principal amount of the Bonds. The Reserve Account shall be funded in the Reserve Amount within seven years of the date of issue of the Series 1999A Bonds. Transfers shall be made into the Bond Reserve Account annually until the Reserve Amount has been reached. Interest on the Bond Reserve Account must be transferred into the Redemption Fund once the Reserve Amount has been reached. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, the moneys credited to the Bond Reserve Account shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of, redemption premiums (if any) and interest on the Bonds as to which there would otherwise be a default. If at any time it shall be necessary to use moneys credited to the Bond Reserve Account for such payment, then the moneys so used shall be replaced from the Net Revenues first received thereafter which are not required for current principal and interest requirements until the amount on deposit equals the Reserve Amount. If additional Bonds are issued, each Ordinance authorizing the additional Bonds shall provide for additional deposits to the Bond Reserve Account to be made from the proceeds of the additional Bonds or Issuer funds on hand and legally available for such use in an amount that will result in the Bond Reserve Account being equal to the maximum annual principal and interest requirements on the Bonds outstanding after issuance of the additional Bonds, or such lesser amount as may be necessary to maintain the tax-exempt status of the Bonds. If on any principal payment date the amount in the Bond Reserve Account exceeds the Reserve Amount, the excess shall be transferred to the Redemption Fund for payment of principal and interest on the Bonds due on that date.

C. REPLACEMENT FUND:

There shall next be established and maintained a fund designated REPLACEMENT FUND (the "Replacement Fund"), the money credited thereto to be used solely for the purpose of making repairs and replacements to the System. Out of the Revenues and moneys of the System remaining in the Receiving Fund each month after provision has been made for the deposit of moneys in the Operation and Maintenance Fund and the Redemption Fund (including the Bond Reserve Account), there may be deposited in the Replacement Fund such additional funds as the City Council may deem advisable. If at any time it shall be necessary to use moneys in the Replacement Fund for the purpose for which the Replacement Fund was established, the moneys so used shall be replaced from any moneys in the Receiving Fund which are not required by this Ordinance to be used for the Operation and Maintenance Fund or the Redemption Fund (including the Bond Reserve Account).

D. IMPROVEMENT FUND:

Out of the remaining Revenues in the Receiving Fund, after meeting the requirements of the Operation and Maintenance Fund, the Redemption Fund (including the Bond Reserve Account) and the Replacement Fund, there may be next set aside in or credited to a fund to be designated IMPROVEMENT FUND (the "Improvement Fund"), which Improvement Fund may have several subaccounts therein, such sums monthly as the Issuer may deem advisable to be used for additions, improvements, enlargements or extensions to the System, including the planning thereof.

E. GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT FUND:

There is hereby established a separate account known as the GENERAL OBLIGATION DEBT FUND (the "G.O. Debt Fund"). Out of the remaining Revenues in the Receiving Fund, there may be next set aside in or credited to monthly after meeting the requirements of the foregoing Funds, to the G.O. Debt Fund, or from other available moneys such sums as shall be necessary to pay debt service on presently existing or future general obligation bond issues of the Issuer or general obligations or contractual obligations of the Issuer incurred or to be incurred for System purposes.

F. SURPLUS MONEYS:

Thereafter, any Revenues in the Receiving Fund after satisfying all the foregoing requirements of this Section may, at the discretion of the Issuer, be used for any of the following purposes:

1. Transferred to the Replacement Fund, the Improvement Fund or both.

2. Transferred to the Redemption Fund and used for the purchase of Bonds on the open market at not more than the fair market value thereof or used to redeem Bonds prior to maturity pursuant to Section 5 of this Ordinance.

3. Any other use permitted by law.

Section 14. Priority of Funds. In the event the moneys in the Receiving Fund are insufficient to provide for the current requirements of the Operation and Maintenance Fund or the Redemption Fund, any moneys or securities in other funds of the System, except the proceeds of sale of the Bonds, shall be credited or transferred, first, to the Operation and Maintenance Fund, and second to the Redemption Fund.

Section 15. Depository and Funds on Hand. Moneys in the several funds and the accounts established pursuant to this Ordinance, except moneys in the Redemption Fund (including the Bond Reserve Account) and moneys derived from the proceeds of sale of the Bonds, may be kept in one or more bank accounts at a bank or banks designated by resolution of the Issuer, and if kept in one bank account the moneys shall be allocated on the books and records of the Issuer in the manner and at the times provided in this Ordinance.

Section 16. Investments. Moneys in the funds and accounts established herein and moneys derived from the proceeds of sale of the Bonds, may be invested by the Issuer in United States of America obligations or in obligations the principal of and interest on which is fully guaranteed by the United States of America and any investments hereafter permitted by law, and moneys derived from the proceeds of sale of the Bonds may also be invested in certificates of deposit of any bank whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Investment of moneys in the Redemption Fund being accumulated for payment of the next maturing principal or interest payment of the Bonds shall be limited to obligations bearing maturity dates prior to the date of the next maturing principal or interest payment on the Bonds. Investment of moneys in the Bond Reserve Account shall be limited to obligations bearing maturity dates or subject to redemption, at the option of the holder thereof, not later than five years from the date of the investment. In the event investments are made, any securities representing the same shall be kept on deposit with the bank or trust company having on deposit the fund or funds or account from which the purchase was made. Profit realized or interest income earned on investment of funds in the Receiving Fund, Operation and Maintenance Fund and Improvement Fund shall be deposited in or credited to the Receiving Fund at the end of each fiscal year. Profit realized on interest income earned on investment of moneys in the Redemption Fund including income derived from the Bond Reserve Account shall be credited as received to the Redemption Fund.

Section 17. Bond Proceeds. From the proceeds of the sale of the Bonds there shall be immediately deposited in the Redemption Fund an amount equal to the accrued interest and premium, if any, received on the delivery of the Bonds. The balance of the proceeds of the sale of the Bonds when received from the Authority shall be deposited in a bank or banks, designated by the City Council, qualified to act as depository of the proceeds of sale under the provisions of Section 15 of Act 94, in an account designated CONSTRUCTION FUND (the "Construction Fund"). Moneys in the Construction Fund shall be applied solely in payment of the cost of the Project, including any engineering, legal and other expenses incident thereto and to the financing thereof. Payments for construction, either on account or otherwise, shall not be made unless the registered engineer in charge of such work shall file with the City Council a signed statement to the effect that the work has been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor; that it was done pursuant to and in accordance with the contract therefor (including properly authorized change orders), that such work is satisfactory and that such work has not been previously paid for.

Any unexpended balance of the proceeds of sale of the Bonds remaining after completion of the Project in the Construction Fund may, at the discretion of the Issuer, be used for further improvements, enlargements and extension to the System, if, at the time of such expenditures, such use is approved by the Michigan Department of Treasury, if such permission is then required by law. Any remaining balance after such expenditure shall be paid to the Redemption Fund and may be used for the purpose of purchasing Bonds on the open market at not more than the fair market value thereof, but not more than the price at which the Bonds may next be called for redemption, or used for the purpose of paying principal of the Bonds upon maturity or calling Bonds for redemption.

Section 18. Bond Form. The Bonds shall be in substantially the following form:

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF MICHIGAN
COUNTY OF CHARLEVOIX
CITY OF EAST JORDAN
WATER SUPPLY SYSTEM REVENUE BOND, SERIES 1999A

REGISTERED OWNER:
Michigan Municipal Bond Authority

PRINCIPAL AMOUNT:
_____Dollars ($___,000)

DATE OF ORIGINAL ISSUE:
_____, 1999

The CITY OF EAST JORDAN, County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan (the "City"), for value received, hereby promises to pay, but only out of the hereinafter described Net Revenues of the City's Water Supply System (hereinafter defined), to the Michigan Municipal Bond Authority (the "Authority"), or registered assigns, the Principal Amount shown above, or such portion thereof as shall have been advanced to the City pursuant to a Purchase Contract between the City and the Authority and a Supplemental Agreement by and among the City, the Authority and the State of Michigan acting through the Department of Environmental Quality, in lawful money of the United States of America, unless prepaid prior thereto as hereinafter provided.

During the time the Principal Amount is being drawn down by the City under this bond, the Authority will periodically provide to the City a statement showing the amount of principal that has been advanced and the date of each advance, which statement shall constitute prima facie evidence of the reported information; provided that no failure on the part of the Authority to provide such a statement or to reflect a disbursement or the correct amount of a disbursement shall relieve the City of its obligation to repay the outstanding Principal Amount actually advanced, all accrued interest thereon, and any other amount payable with respect thereto in accordance with the terms of this bond.

The Principal Amount shall be payable on the dates and in the annual principal installment amounts set forth on the Schedule attached to the Purchase Contract, as such Schedule may be adjusted if less than $_____.000 is disbursed to the City or if a portion of the Principal Amount is prepaid as provided below, with interest on said principal installments from the date each said installment is delivered to the holder hereof until paid at the rate of two and one-half percent (2.5%) per annum. Interest is first payable on _____1, 199_, and semiannually thereafter on the first day of April and October of each year, as set forth in the Purchase Contract.

The Bonds may be subject to redemption prior to maturity by the Issuer only with the prior written consent of the Authority and on such terms as may be required by the Authority.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this bond, as long as the Authority is the owner of this bond, (a) this bond is payable as to principal, premium, if any, and interest at the designated office of _____ or at such other place as shall be designated in writing to the City by the Authority (the "Authority's Depository"); (b)the City agrees that it will deposit with the Authority's Depository payments of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on this bond in immediately available funds at least five business days prior to the date on which any such payment is due whether by maturity, redemption or otherwise; and (c) written notice of any redemption of this bond shall be given by the City and received by the Authority's Depository at least 40 days prior to the date on which such redemption is to be made.

Additional Interest

In the event of a default in the payment of principal or interest hereon when due, whether at maturity, by redemption or otherwise, the amount of such default shall bear interest (the "additional interest") at a rate equal to the rate of interest which is two percent above the Authority's cost of providing funds (as determined by the Authority) to make payment on the bonds of the Authority issued to provide funds to purchase this bond but in no event in excess of the maximum rate of interest permitted by law. The additional interest shall continue to accrue until the Authority has been fully reimbursed for all costs incurred by the Authority (as determined by the Authority) as a consequence of the City's default. Such additional interest shall be payable on the interest payment date following demand of the Authority. In the event that (for reasons other than the default in the payment of any municipal obligation purchased by the Authority) the investment of amounts in the reserve account established by the Authority for the bonds of the Authority issued to provide funds to purchase this bond fails to provide sufficient available funds (together with any other funds which may be made available for such purpose) to pay the interest on outstanding bonds of the Authority issued to fund such account, the City shall and hereby agrees to pay on demand only the City's pro rata share (as determined by the Authority) of such deficiency as additional interest on this bond.

For prompt payment of principal and interest on this bond, the City has irrevocably pledged the revenues of the Water Supply System of the City, including all appurtenances, extensions and improvements thereto (the "System"), after provision has been made for reasonable and necessary expenses of operation, maintenance and administration (the "Net Revenues"), and a statutory lien thereon is hereby recognized and created.

This bond is a single, fully-registered, non-convertible bond in the principal sum indicated above issued pursuant to Ordinance No. ___ duly adopted by the City Council of the City, and under and in full compliance with the Constitution and statutes of the State of Michigan, including specifically Act 94, Public Acts of Michigan, 1933, as amended, for the purpose of paying part of the cost of acquiring and constructing additions, extensions and improvements to the System.

Principal installments of this bond are subject to prepayment by the City prior to maturity only with the prior written consent of the Authority and on such terms as may be required by the Authority.

For a complete statement of the revenues from which and the conditions under which this bond is payable, a statement of the conditions under which additional bonds of superior and equal standing may hereafter be issued and the general covenants and provisions pursuant to which this bond is issued, reference is made to the above-described Ordinance.

This bond is a self-liquidating bond and is not a general obligation of the City and does not constitute an indebtedness of the City within any constitutional, statutory or charter debt limitations, but is payable solely and only, both as to principal and interest, from the Net Revenues of the System. The principal of and interest on this bond are secured by the statutory lien hereinbefore mentioned.

The City has covenanted and agreed, and does hereby covenant and agree, to fix and maintain at all times while any bonds payable from the Net Revenues of the System shall be outstanding, such rates for service furnished by the System as shall be sufficient to provide for payment of the interest upon and the principal of the bonds of this issue, as and when the same shall become due and payable, and to maintain a bond redemption fund (including a bond reserve account) therefor, to provide for the payment of expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the System as are necessary to preserve the same in good repair and working order, and to provide for such other expenditures and funds for the System as are required by said Ordinances.

This bond is transferable only upon the books of the City by the registered owner in person or the registered owner's attorney duly authorized in writing, upon the surrender of this bond together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the transfer agent, duly executed by the registered owner or the registered owner's attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon a new bond or bonds in the same aggregate principal amount and of the same maturity shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor as provided in the Ordinance authorizing the bonds, and upon payment of the charges, if any, therein prescribed.

It is hereby certified and recited that all acts, conditions and things required by law to be done precedent to and in the issuance of this bond and the series of bonds of which this is one have been done and performed in regular and due time and form as required by law.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the City of East Jordan, County of Charlevoix, State of Michigan, by its City Council, has caused this bond to be executed with the manual signatures of its Mayor and its Clerk and the corporate seal of the City to be impressed hereon, all as of the Date of Original Issue.

Section 19. Covenants. The Issuer covenants and agrees with the holders of the Bonds that so long as any of the Bonds remain outstanding and unpaid as to either principal or interest -

(a) The Issuer will maintain the System in good repair and working order and will operate the same efficiently and will faithfully and punctually perform all duties with reference to the System required by the Constitution and laws of the State of Michigan, and this Ordinance.

(b) The Issuer will keep proper books of record and account separate from all other records and accounts of the Issuer, in which shall be made full and correct entries of all transactions relating to the System. The Issuer shall have an annual audit of the books of record and account of the System for the preceding operating year made each year by an independent certified public accountant, and a copy of the audit shall be mailed to the manager of each syndicate or account originally purchasing any issue of the Bonds. The auditor shall comment on the manner in which the Issuer is complying with the requirements of the Ordinance with respect to setting aside and investing moneys and meeting the requirements for acquiring and maintaining insurance. The audit shall be completed and so made available not later than six (6) months after the close of each operating year.

(c) The Issuer will maintain and carry, for the benefit of the holders of the Bonds, insurance on all physical properties of the System and liability insurance, of the kinds and in the amounts normally carried by municipalities engaged in the operation of water supply systems, including self-insurance. All moneys received for losses under any such insurance policies shall be applied solely to the replacement and restoration of the property damaged or destroyed, and to the extent not so used, shall be used for the purpose of redeeming or purchasing Bonds.

(d) The Issuer will not sell, lease or dispose of the System, or any substantial part, until all of the Bonds have been paid in full, both as to principal and interest or provision made thereof as herein provided. The Issuer will operate the System as economically as possible, will make all repairs and replacements necessary to keep the System in good repair and working order, and will not do or suffer to be done any act which would affect the System in such a way as to have a material adverse effect on the security for the Bonds.

(e) The Issuer will not grant any franchise or other rights to any person, firm or corporation to operate a System that will compete with the System and the Issuer will not operate a system that will compete with the System.

(f) The Issuer will cause the Project to be acquired and constructed promptly and in accordance with the plans and specification therefor.

Section 20. Additional Bonds. Except as hereinafter provided, the Issuer shall not issue additional Bonds of equal or prior standing with the Series 1999A Bonds.

The right is reserved in accordance with the provisions of Act 94, to issue additional Bonds payable from the Revenues of the System which shall be of equal standing and priority of lien on the Net Revenues of the System with the Bonds but only for the following purposes and under the following terms and conditions:

(a) To complete the Project in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor. Such bonds shall not be authorized unless the engineers in charge of construction shall execute a certificate evidencing the fact that additional funds are needed to complete the Project in accordance with the plans and specifications therefor and stating the amount that will be required to complete the Project. If such certificate shall be so executed and filed with the Issuer, it shall be the duty of the Issuer to provide for and issue additional revenue bonds in the amount stated in said certificate to be necessary to complete the Project in accordance with the plans and specifications plus an amount necessary to issue such bonds or to provide for part or all of such amount from other sources. The issuance of the Water Supply System Revenue Bonds in an amount not to exceed $1,200,000 to be issued within the next year is hereby determined to be necessary to complete the Project and may be issued without any additional certificates as described above.

(b) For subsequent repairs, extensions, enlargements and improvements to the System or for the purpose of refunding part of any Bonds then outstanding and paying costs of issuing such additional Bonds including deposits which may be required to be made to the Bond Reserve Account. Bonds for such purposes shall not be issued pursuant to this subparagraph (b) unless the Adjusted Net Revenues of the System for the preceding twelve-month operating year shall be equal to at least one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the maximum amount of principal and interest thereafter maturing in any operating year on the then outstanding Bonds and on the additional Bonds then being issued. If the additional Bonds are to be issued in whole or in part for refunding outstanding Bonds, the annual principal and interest requirements shall be determined by deducting from the principal and interest requirements for each operating year the annual principal and interest requirements of any Bonds to be refunded from the proceeds of the additional Bonds. For purposes of this subparagraph (b)the Issuer may elect to use as the last preceding operating year any operating year ending not more than sixteen months prior to the date of delivery of the additional Bonds. Determination by the Issuer as to existence of conditions permitting the issuance of additional Bonds shall be conclusive. No additional Bonds of equal standing as to the Net Revenues of the System shall be issued pursuant to the authorization contained in this subparagraph if the Issuer shall then be in default in making its required payments to the Operation and Maintenance Fund or the Redemption Fund.

(c) For refunding a part of the outstanding Bonds and paying costs of issuing such additional Bonds including deposits which may be required to be made to the Bond Reserve Account. No additional Bonds shall be issued pursuant to this subsection unless the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing in any operating year after giving effect to the refunding shall be less than the maximum amount of principal and interest maturing in any operating year prior to giving effect to the refunding.

Section 21. Application to MDEQ and Authority. The Authorized Officers are hereby authorized to make application to the Authority and to the MDEQ for placement of the Series 1999A Bonds with the Authority. The Authorized Officers are further authorized to execute and deliver such contracts, documents and certificates including a revenue sharing pledge agreement as are necessary or advisable to qualify the Series 1999A Bonds for the Drinking Water Revolving Fund. In the event of a sale of the Series 1999A Bonds to the Authority, an Authorized Officer is hereby authorized to make such changes to the form of Series 1999A Bond contained in Section 18 of this Ordinance as may be necessary to conform to the requirements of 1985 PA 227 ("Act 227"), including, but not limited to changes in the principal maturity and interest payment dates and references to additional security required by Act 227. In the event the Series 1999A Bonds are sold to the Authority, the taxes collected by the State of Michigan and returned to the Issuer may be pledged for payment of the Series 1999A Bonds, and an Authorized Officer is further authorized to negotiate, execute and deliver an agreement with the Authority for payment of such taxes to the Authority or to a trustee as provided in Section 23 of Act 227.

Section 22. Covenant Regarding Tax Exempt Status of the Bonds. The Issuer shall, to the extent permitted by law, take all actions within its control necessary to maintain the exclusion of the interest on the Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code") including, but not limited to, actions relating to any required rebate of arbitrage earnings and the expenditure and investment of Bond proceeds and moneys deemed to be Bond proceeds, and to prevent the Bonds from being or becoming "private activity bonds" as that term is used in Section 141 of the Code.

Section 23. Repeal, Savings Clause. All ordinances, resolutions or orders, or parts thereof, in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance are, to the extent of such conflict, repealed.

Section 24. Severability; Paragraph Headings; and Conflict. If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph, clause or provision shall not affect any of the other provisions of this Ordinance. The paragraph headings in this Ordinance are furnished for convenience of reference only and shall not be considered to be part of this Ordinance.

Section 25. Publication and Recordation. This Ordinance shall be published in full in the East Jordan Journal, a newspaper of general circulation in the Issuer qualified under State law to publish legal notices, promptly after its adoption, and shall be recorded in the Ordinance Book of the Issuer and such recording authenticated by the signatures of the Mayor and City Clerk.

Section 26. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall be effective upon its adoption.

The Bonds shall be sold at not less than 98.5% of their par value. The Bonds will be subject to redemption prior to maturity as hereinafter provided.

5. The Bonds shall be executed in the name of the City with the facsimile signatures of the Mayor and the City Clerk and shall bear the actual or a facsimile of the City seal. No Bond of this series shall be valid until authenticated by an authorized signature of the transfer agent designated in the notice of sale of the Bonds. The Bonds shall be delivered to the transfer agent for authentication and be delivered by the transfer agent to the purchaser in accordance with instructions from the City Manager of the City upon payment of the purchase price for the Bonds in accordance with the bid therefor when accepted. Executed blank bonds for registration and issuance to transferees shall simultaneously, and from time to time thereafter as necessary, be delivered to the transfer agent for safekeeping. The principal of the Bonds shall be payable at the designated office of the paying agent. The City Manager is hereby authorized and directed to designate as bond registrar, paying agent and transfer agent a bank or trust company located in the State of Michigan and qualified to carry out such duties under the laws of the State of Michigan. The City may designate a new Transfer Agent by notice mailed to the registered owner of each of the Bonds at such time outstanding not less than sixty (60) days prior to an interest payment date.

The Bonds shall be issued in book-entry only form as one fully registered bond per maturity and shall be registered in the name of Cede & Co., as bondholder and nominee for The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, New York. DTC will act as securities depository for the Bonds, and purchasers will not receive certificates representing their interest in bonds purchased. If the Bonds are issued in book-entry only form, provisions in this resolution to the contrary shall be of no force nor effect unless and until the suspension of the book-entry only system. The City Manager and the City Clerk are each authorized to determine whether the Bonds shall be issued in book-entry only form, to make such changes in the form of the bonds and in the notice of sale therefor as shall be necessary or convenient to enable the Bonds to be issued in book-entry only form, and to execute such documents as may be required to enable the Bonds to be so issued.

6. Any Bond may be transferred upon the books required to be kept pursuant to this section by the person in whose name it is registered, in person or by the registered owner's duly authorized attorney, upon surrender of the Bond for cancellation, accompanied by delivery of a duly executed written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the transfer agent. Whenever any Bond or Bonds shall be surrendered for transfer, the City shall execute and the transfer agent shall authenticate and deliver a new Bond or Bonds, in like aggregate principal amount. The transfer agent shall require the payment by the bondholder requesting the transfer of any tax or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to the transfer. The date of determination of the registered owner for purposes of payment of interest as provided in this resolution may be changed by the City to conform to market practice in the future. The principal of the Bonds shall be payable at the office of the transfer agent designated by the transfer agent.

7. To provide moneys to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds and in accordance with the provisions of Act 175, there is hereby made an irrevocable appropriation of the amount necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds from the moneys to be derived from State-collected taxes returned to the City for highway purposes, pursuant to law. The City Manager of the City is directed, each year that any of the principal of and interest on the Bonds remains unpaid, to set aside in a separate fund, to be designated 1999 MICHIGAN TRANSPORTATION FUND BONDS DEBT RETIREMENT FUND, sufficient moneys from revenues received during such year from the Michigan Transportation Fund pursuant to law to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds next maturing. The City Manager is further directed to open a separate depository account, to be designated 1999 MICHIGAN TRANSPORTATION FUND BONDS CONSTRUCTION FUND into which the proceeds of the Bonds, less accrued interest and premium, if any, shall be deposited, which account shall be used to pay the costs of constructing the Improvements. Proceeds remaining after completion of the Improvements shall be applied as permitted by law.

8. Pursuant to Act 175, and as additional security for the prompt payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds, there is hereby irrevocably pledged the limited tax full faith and credit of the City, and in the event of insufficiency of funds primarily pledged to the payment thereof, the City covenants and agrees to provide for such insufficiency from such resources as are lawfully available to it.

Ready to ride

Justin Bush was one happy young man after he won one of two bicycles given away at last Saturday's Boyne City Bike Rodeo. Hosted at Grandma's Day Care, children attending the rodeo had their bikes inspected and registered, then they had a chance to try out an obstacle course designed to test their bike-riding skills. The event was sponsored by the Boyne City Police Department, Mark Patrick State Farm Insurance and Grandma's. The Boyne City Fire Department donated the bicycles. Amy Monk won the girl's bike.

Bonds of this issue maturing in the years 1999 to 2009, inclusive, shall not be subject to redemption prior to maturity. Bonds or portions of bonds in multiples of $5,000 of this issue maturing in the years 2010 to 2014, inclusive, shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity, at the option of the City, in such order as the City shall determine, on any interest payment date on or after June 1, 2009, at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption.
